

The old way: you tell the view to update. The signal way: it already knows.

SIGNAL

- 1 A signal holds a value and a list of who is watching it.
- 2 Change the value and every watcher is notified automatically.
- 3 No manual change detection, no wondering why the screen is stale.

REMEMBER THIS

This is the same idea as a spreadsheet cell. Change one, the rest recalculate.